Morphine :

Written by Joke

I felt my body aching
My lifes energy flowing all away
Something inside me was breaking
Feeling worse, day by day

For years and years I've been fighting
A battle I knew I wasn't winning
A struggle which conclusion
Was set right at the beginning

Then the pills all stopped from working
The pain just got too strong
Suicidal thoughts were merging
But I realised in time
Those thoughts were wrong

But now I must cease
Cause I just can't take no more
Waiting for a release

.....Morphine

As they pump it gently into my vein
Slowly setting me free from my pain
I know it's not a cure
But it gives me mental strenght
So I can go on for just some more
I'm not ready to face my end .

Morphine:

Written by Steven

Morphine flow through my veins
Morphine my history of pain
Morphine my substitute for life
Morphine my enemy in the afterlife

My surroundings effect my thoughts
These thoughts effect the control
Of the things I hold dear
And the live I now see clear

Morphine flow through my veins
Morphine my history of pain
Morphine my substitute for life
Morphine my energy in the afterlife

But I can build faster
Than a man can break down
I can live larger
Even if it takes my crown

I'm just me.....marcE!!!!!!
Blooming tree.....marcE!!!!!!
Yes!! I'm just me.....marcE!!!!!!
